DETAILED ACTION

Response to Arguments

1. Applicant's arguments filed 11/13/07 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. Applicant argues Wei fails to disclose the specific combination of zinc, ammonium, and chloride ions. Applicant argues that to arrive at a composition comprising these three components, one would have to pick and choose from an enormous selection of possible elements with no guidance to do so. While it is true that Wei discloses various elements for its composition, Wei does in fact teach the claimed materials and that the materials may be combined. A reference may be relied upon for all that it would have reasonably suggested to one having ordinary skill in the art, including nonpreferred embodiments. Merck & Co. v. Biocraft Laboratories, 874 F.2d 804, 10 USPQ2d 1843 (Fed. Cir.), cert. denied, 493 U.S. 975 (1989). See also Celeritas Technologies Ltd. v. Rockwell International Corp., 150 F.3d 1354, 1361, 47 USPQ2d 1516, 1522-23 (Fed. Cir. 1998) (The court held that the prior art anticipated the claims even though it taught away from the claimed invention. " MPEP 2123 [R3] The structure that is provided in the claims is met by the Wei reference as discussed in the rejection below. Applicant argues Wei does not teach a composition in which zinc ions promote re-epithelialization. However, Wei teaches similar materials for its composition; therefore, the examiner has reasonable factual basis to conclude the materials would function in the same manner as the present invention.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(a) the invention was known or used by others in this country, or patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country, before the invention thereof by the applicant for a patent.

3. Claims 1-46 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(a) as being anticipated by Wei et al. US Patent Application Publication 2002/0098159.

As to claims 1-16, Wei discloses a topically applied antimicrobial composition consisting essentially of zinc ions, ammonium ions, and chloride ions. The composition further comprises hydrochloric acid and optionally an aqueous carrier (paragraphs 0031, 0045, 0068, 0089-0096). The transitional phrase "consisting essentially of" limits the scope of a claim to the specified materials or steps "and those that do not materially affect the basic and novel characteristic(s)" of the claimed invention. In re Herz, 537 F.2d 549, 551-52, 190 USPQ 461, 463 (CCPA 1976). There is no evidence that the presence of additional components would materially affect the basic and novel characteristic of the claimed invention. "A consisting essentially of claim occupies a middle ground between closed claims that are written in a consisting of format and fully open claims that are drafted in a comprising format." PPG Industries v. Guardian Industries, 156 F.3d 1351, 1354, 48 USPQ2d 1351, 1353-54 (Fed. Cir. 1998). See also Atlas Powder v. E.I. duPont de Nemours & Co., 750 F.2d 1569, 224 USPQ 409 (Fed. Cir. 1984); In re Janakirama-Rao, 317 F.2d 951, 137 USPQ 893 (CCPA 1963); Water Technologies Corp. vs. Calco, Ltd., 850 F.2d 660, 7 USPQ2d 1097 (Fed. Cir. 1988). For the purposes of searching for and applying prior art under 35 U.S.C. 102 and 103, absent a clear indication in the specification or claims of what the basic and novel characteristics actually are, "consisting essentially of" will be construed as equivalent to "comprising." See, e.g., PPG, 156 F.3d at 1355, 48 USPQ2d at 1355...If an applicant contends that additional steps or materials in the prior art are excluded by the recitation of "consisting essentially of," applicant has the burden of showing that the introduction of additional steps or components would materially change the characteristics of applicant's invention. In re De Lajarte, 337 F.2d 870, 143 USPQ 256 (CCPA 1964). See also Ex parte Hoffman, 12 USPQ2d 1061, 1063-64 (Bd. Pat. App. & Inter. 1989). MPEP 2111.03.

As to claims 17, 2-22, 27, 28, and 33-38, Wei discloses an aqueous solution (paragraphs 0092-0096).

As to claims 18, 19, and 29-32, Wei discloses the composition having the claimed pH (paragraph 0040).

As to claims 23, 39, and 40, Wei discloses the composition includes materials from the claimed group of excipients (paragraph 0256, 0301-0315).

As to claims 24, 41, and 42, Wei discloses the composition is in the form as claimed (paragraph 0324-0325).

As to claims 25, 26, and 43-46, Wei discloses a method of treating the skin for the disorders from the claimed group of skin disorders (paragraph 0321, 0332, and 0379).

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
